How do I cancel the contract?

If you cancel your policy in the 14 working days (the “cooling of period”) after the start date of the policy or the day on which you receive your policy documents, whichever is later, we will work out the premium for the period for which we have insured you and refund any balance.

If you cancel your policy at any other time, as long as no claim has happened during the current period of insurance, we will work out the premium for the period for which we have insured you and refund any balance that amounts to €20 or more. We will not refund any premium if you have made a claim or if one has been made against you during the current Period of Insurance.

We aim to give excellent service to all our customers; however, we recognise that things may occasionally go wrong. Arbitration

Any dispute between you and us (about our liability over a claim or the amount to be paid) must be referred (within 12 months of the dispute arising) to an arbitrator appointed jointly by you and us. If you and we cannot agree on an arbitrator, the President of the Law Society of Ireland will decide on the arbitrator and the decision of that arbitrator will be final. If you do not refer the dispute to arbitration within 12 months, we will treat the claim as abandoned.
