What are my obligations?

- Answer all our questions honestly and with reasonable care and answers must be true and complete
- You must Contact us as soon as reasonably possible after the happening of any event which might give rise to a claim under the Policy
- You must observe the terms and conditions of this policy and if you are required to do or comply with terms conditions and provisions you must do so
- You must co-operate fully with us in investigating and handling any claim including sending us all documents, proof, information and any letter or legal summons or similar document we may reasonably need.

When and how do I pay?

In order to proceed with Policy cover you must contact your broker in advance of the required cover start date to arrange for the payment of the premium. Payment methods depend on the options available from your broker and may include cheque or credit/debit card payment or a schedule of direct debit installments (a service charge may apply).

When does the cover start and end?

Your Policy will remain in force from the start date as noted in your schedule for 12 months (or as otherwise shown in your Schedule).

How do I cancel the contract?

You may cancel this Policy at any time by notifying us in writing. If you cancel your policy during the 14 working days cooling off period, we will work out the premium for the period for which we have insured you and refund any balance. If you cancel your policy at any other time, as long as no claim has happened during the current period of insurance, we will work out the premium for the period for which we have insured you and refund any balance.
